

BadgerLunch Webinar Series

Want to learn how BadgerLink can help you?

Thursdays at noon

30 - 45 minute sessions

The BadgerLunch webinar series explores BadgerLink's rich collection of information tools. Each session covers one resource, database, or interface.

All sessions are open to anyone who wants to learn. Topics include a description of the information/learning resource, searching techniques, and helpful features.

The archive of previous sessions is found at <http://www.badgerlink.net/training.html>

BadgerLink provides access to quality online information resources for Wisconsin residents.

BadgerLink is a project of the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI), Division for Libraries, Technology, and Community Learning. The project is funded through the Wisconsin Universal Service Fund with partial support provided by the Library Services and Technology Act using funds received from the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS).

BadgerLunch Webinar Series

Basic Information

I am not a librarian or a teacher. Does that matter? Can I participate?

BadgerLink is available to all Wisconsin residents and the BadgerLunch series is also. No prior knowledge of the resource is required. We want all Wisconsin residents to understand and to use these information resources.

What do I need to participate?

You will need reliably fast internet connection, a recent version of a web browser, and speakers or headphones to listen to the presenter. A telephone isn't strictly required. Users can type instant messages to ask questions.

Do I need to register in advance?

No, you do not need to register.

Who will be presenting?

For this series, the outreach/training personnel from each program will host the session.

I can't make that time. Will the sessions be recorded?

Yes, we will record these sessions and make them available from the BadgerLink webpage. Go to <http://www.badgerlink.net/training.html> for the archived sessions.

Should I log into a session early?

Yes, since each session is short, please log into the webinar 5-10 minutes early. If you have little experience with webinars, then give yourself some extra time and log in a few minutes earlier. If you have trouble logging into the webinar, please email Kara Ripley at kara.ripley@dpi.wi.gov.

Who do I contact with my questions?

Contact Kara Ripley at kara.ripley@dpi.wi.gov.

Who can help me to get access to BadgerLink?

Complete the support contact form at http://dpi.wi.gov/rl/bl\_sup.asp for technical support.

Where can I get announcements about BadgerLink?

You can join the BadgerLink email list at <http://www.badgerlink.net/list.html>. Additionally, we send out update emails to the WisPubLib and WEMTA Listservs on a regular basis and are also on Facebook and on Twitter.
